To Whom It May Concern,

Due to restrictions in travel and personal interaction associated with the COVID-19 Pandemic and to support expanded capabilities for all service providers in their delivery of tele-health services, Pearson Clinical Assessment is issuing this letter of No Objection to permit the following use of our copyrighted materials:

- Qualified professionals are hereby granted a limited and revocable permission to utilize appropriate non-public facing teleconferencing software and tools to assist in the remote administration of Pearson assessment content, consistent with this letter. Before test administration, the qualified professional must obtain documented agreement from the examinee that the session will not be recorded, reproduced or published, and that copies of the materials will not be made. Further, the qualified professional may not utilize recording capabilities to record live test administrations.
- This permission is intended to include the use of non-public facing screen-mirroring and screen share methods to remotely share test item content with examinees on a computer screen and capture responses either verbally or through other means.
- This permission is not intended to allow for use of photocopying, scanning, or duplication of test protocols, including any screen capture or session recording technology, but is merely intended to support practical live delivery of tele-health services.
- This permission is also not intended to allow for any modification to the original test content as it currently appears. Any use of original test content must include copyright notices as contained in the materials and show the copyright notice when displayed. Further requests to modify, translate, digitize, or alter test content should continue to follow Pearson's standard procedure for Licensing and Permissions requests located here.
- Pearson reserves the right to revoke this Limited Permission at any time in the interest of test content security and/or test validity and will review the ongoing status of this No Objection Letter as conditions require.

Thank you for your critical role in delivering essential services to your community. Pearson Clinical Assessments is equally committed to supporting your efforts to continue service however we can. Please let us know if you have additional questions on this topic or if we can help you in any other ways.
