

BASC™-3 Identifying and Supporting Students' Mental Health Needs

Presented by: Chris Huzinec
Delivery method: On demand
Instructional level: Intermediate
Sponsored by: NCS Pearson, Inc

Course Description

This is Module 1 of a two-module series. Available separately or purchased together with Module 1, Module 2 is entitled BASC-3 Promoting Social, Emotional and Behavioral Wellbeing Development.

This learning track examines the current mental health crisis facing our students and discusses how a broadband assessment of behavior can be used to evaluate the social, emotional, and behavioral needs of students. Specifically, this session explores how components of the BASC-3 can be used to identify mental health issues and how results from these assessments can be used in the interpretation process and to guide BASC-3 interventions and supports.

Learner Outcomes

After completing this learning track, the participants will be able to:

Part 1: Identifying and Supporting Students' Mental Health Needs

1. Discuss the current mental health challenges facing our students.
2. Identify how behavioral and mental health assessments can be used to address these challenges.

Part 2: BASC-3 Rating Scales, Self-Report of Personality, and Emotional Disturbance Qualification Scales

1. Apply the BASC-3 model, employing the rating scales and self-report.
2. Use the BASC-3 model in the process of identifying social, emotional, and behavioral challenges.

Part 3: Scores, Reports, Interpretation, and Guiding Interventions

1. Demonstrate how results and reports can be interpreted and used diagnostically.
2. Formulate how students' results can be used in the selection and application of BASC-3 interventions and supports.
